1. She's 'the female Banksy'

It was none other than David Dimbleby who gave her this moniker. Her graffiti technique – stencil and spray paint – is similar to Banksy as is her use of zeitgeisty subject matter (from David Beckham to Amy Winehouse) and the fact her identity is kept under wraps.

2. The celebs love her

Her artwork has been collected by Brad and Ange, Kate Moss, Harry Styles and Adele, to name a few

3. Her artwork sells for thousands

Brad Pitt shelled out £60,000 for her Kate and Wills piece and her works have gone for anything from £30,000 to £100,000. A snip.
