

'All you need is love' claimed John Lennon, and the Pop artist Robert Indiana would surely agree. Born Robert Clark in 1928, his 'love' sculptures, prints and paintings are much parodied. A sculpture on New York's 6th Avenue may be his most famous work, but you can feel the love - and buy some of it - at his London show.

19 September - 31 October.

waltonfinearts.com

Originally published on 'The London Magazine' August 2013 issue.

W F A